DENIAL OR TERMINATION OF SECTION 8 ASSISTANCE

According to the Topeka Housing Authority's Section 8 Program Administrative Plan, housing assistance may be denied or terminated for the following reasons:

Chapter 1: Eligibility, Part F. Other Eligibility Criteria:

Staff will deny Program admission to a family that meets the basic eligibility criteria described above for any of the reasons detailed in Chapter 11, Denial or Termination of Assistance of this Administrative Plan.

Chapter 11: Denial or Termination of Assistance, Part F. Discretionary Denial of Assistance To Applicant:

Program staff may deny assistance to Program applicants under the following circumstances:

- Threatening, abusive or violent behavior
A member of the family engaged in physically or verbally abusive, threatening, and/or violent behavior directed toward Program staff or toward another tenant or tenants.

Chapter 11: Denial or Termination of Assistance, Part H. Discretionary Termination of Assistance To Participant:

Program staff may terminate Program assistance to participants under the following circumstances.

- Threatening, abusive or violent behavior
A member of the family engaged in physically or verbally abusive, threatening, and/or violent behavior directed toward Program staff or toward another tenant or tenants.
