

COVID-19 Information

If you have cough, fever, or shortness of breath or have been in contact with someone diagnosed with COVID -19 please call your healthcare provider before you go to a clinic or the emergency department.

Your best protection is staying home as much as possible, washing your hands often, and avoid touching your face.